

SANFL Head Trainer & Property Steward at Adelaide Football Club

- Part time fixed-term contract position
- Work in elite sport
- High performing, dynamic environment

The SANFL Head Trainer/Property Steward is responsible for assisting in the physical preparation of the SANFL playing group through the provision of training and massage service, as well as organising and transporting property and equipment for home and away games. The position is responsible for first level of injury management and treatment of SANFL players and managing and educating SANFL trainers.

About you

To be successful in this role, you will have:

- Level 2 Sports Trainer Certificate (essential);
- Diploma or Certificate 4 in Massage Therapy (essential);
- Experience as a senior trainer in an elite environment (minimum 3 years);
- Extensive knowledge of current elite practices and technologies;
- Experience working in an elite sporting environment and with elite athletes;
- Strong written, verbal and interpersonal communication skills;
- Sound organisational and time management skills.

To Apply

To be considered, please apply with your CV and cover letter to AFC Employment employment@afc.com.au

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are encouraged to apply.

Closing date for applications is Wednesday 26 January 2022.

The AFC reserves the right to appoint this role earlier than the closing date.