The South Augusta Football Club is a family orientated club located at Central Oval Port Augusta and is celebrating its 112th year in 2024. Our mission is to provide a safe, inclusive family environment. Whilst we have a strong focus on developing our local junior players, we also welcome quality people from elsewhere. We are committed to be the best club that we can be. We aim to set the standards for the SGL and the PAJFL both on and off-field. We field teams in nine different age groups (see below) and have healthy player numbers in all of them. If this interests or excites you please read on.

A Grade, B Grade, U18 and U15 teams that compete in the Spencer Gulf League competition which is a six-team competition with three teams based in Port Augusta and three teams based in Port Pirie. Playing and non-playing applicants will be considered for both the A Grade and B Grade positions.

U13, U11, U9, Auskick that compete in the Port Augusta Junior League which is a three-team competition involving the three Port Augusta based clubs with some intertown/interleague games.

Port Augusta AFLW U11/U14/U17 teams which is a five-team competition and growing quickly.
