STATE GAME BACKGROUND

The first “state” game was played before any states existed.

On Tuesday July 1st 1879, twenty one years before Australian Federation and eight years before the current AFL/VFL was formed, the colonies of South Australia and Victoria were represented in a football game at the East Melbourne Cricket Ground. It proved a one sided affair, the Victorian Football Association defeating South Australia 7.14 to 0.3.

SANFL and VFL/VFA are the two oldest continuing football leagues in Australia, the South Australian competition formed on April 30th 1877 and playing its first games on Saturday May 12th 1877. Meanwhile the Victorian Football Association was formed shortly afterwards in May 1877 with the breakaway Victorian Football League (VFL now AFL) commencing twenty years later in 1897.

After the Adelaide Crows entered the AFL in 1991, regular matches between respective state leagues continued.

Over that time (1991-2023), SANFL has

- played 27 state league matches for a 18-9 record, winning its past four (all against Western Australia).
- played the VFL seven times for a 6-1 record, winning its past four. The last VFL win over SANFL was in 2002.

In 2021, the sixteen team Victorian Football League absorbed six teams from the North East Australian Football League (NEAFL) and this season has twenty one teams stretching along the east coast states (Queensland, New South Wales & Victoria).

This is the first VFL representative game since 2017 when it lost to WAFL for the first time in Melbourne.

The VFL has lost its last four state games, its last win was in 2012 against the Tasmanian Football League (TFL). Its last win against WAFL was in 2010, SANFL in 2002.

This is the second time Stratarama Stadium, Glenelg has hosted a state game. In 2012, SANFL d WAFL by 14 points. Adam Grocke kicked 7 goals to win the Fos Williams Medal in front of a crowd of 2,843.

The best SANFL player in a state game is awarded the Fos Williams Medal. A full list of medal winners since 1991 is on page 44 of this report.
