WHAT IS THE PLAYER AUCTION

The WWTFC Player Auction provides the opportunity to bid on your favourite Player for a chance to receive a monetary return according to their performance throughout the 2022 SANFL season.

Twelve (12) lots of Senior players will be auctioned in the Main Player Auction and 15 lots in the Tender Auction.

The cash prize will be spread throughout the minor round games and allocated to the purchasers of the best three (3) players in the League on the day and the best in the Reserves in accordance with match committee selections.

The cash prize for each will be calculated once both of the auctions have been completed and announced on the day

Prize money will be paid directly into the winner's bank account at the end of the season in one lump sum payment.

RAFFLE

$10 A TICKET

Dylan Clarke

Dylan has recently joined us from Essendon. Dylan is a strong big bodied mid who is set to have a massive impact on the SANFL competition.

Lot 1

1 JESSE LONERGAN

In 2021 Jesse showed again why he is one of the premier inside midfielders in the competition using his strength to advantage in the stoppages.

2 Jimmy Toumpas

A great utility player that has the ability to play multiple roles. Jimmy will again be a key cog of the team in 2022!

Lot 2

#55 Jarrad Redden

Jarrad's deft tap work and ability to gain the ball from all around the ground together with his ability to hit the scoreboard will see him maintain his status as one of the premier ruckman in the league.

#21 Seb Guilhaus

Seb returns to the Club after a stint on MAFS and recently played football for Victor Harbor. Seb will be looking to challenge Reddo for the number 1 ruck mantle whilst he has shown the ability to be a target close to goal.

Lot 3

#7 Riley Knight

Riley showed the competition in 2021 he is still very much at AFL level with his aggression at the contest and his quality ball use on the outside. He will again be a very valuable member of the team in season 2022.

13 Ethan Haylock

After a horror run with injuries, Ethan worked his way into the League side in 2021 and has been able to complete his first pre season in several years.. Ethan will provide Jade with great flexibility with his ability to play both up forward and through the midfield.

LOT 4

6 LUKE THOMPSON

Luke will Captain the Club again for his 8th straight season. Luke will continue to take the oppositions best key forward and shut them out of the game.

#15 Mitch Hardie

The 2021 Reserves Best and Fairest hasn't put a foot wrong over the summer. After playing some League footy through the midfield in 2021 he is looking likely to play a forward role after the departures of Angus Poole and Tyson Stengle.

LOT 5

#23 Daniel Menzel

In 2021 Daniel tied with Tyson Stengle with the most goals for the club, kicking 44. He is a nightmare match up for the opposition and with his best pre season for some years will again be a key contributor for the Eagles in 2022.

#39 Jack Firms

Jack's attack on the ball and his love for a contest has been a huge asset for coach Jade Sheedy. He has played key roles on some of the opposition's best players whilst also finding his fair share of the ball.

LOT 6

#5 Kobe Mutch

After having an injury interrupted start to the 2021 season, Kobe finished the season on fire, playing a key role on Grand Final day. Kobe has continued that into the 2022 Pre Season and will be looking to have a big season.

#3 Jake Comitogianni

Jake has established himself as a part of the front 6. His two way running and forward line pressure are features of his game.

LOT 7

10 Connor Ballenden

Connor comes to the Club after spending the last few seasons at Brisbane. Standing at 2m tall Connor will be a key target up forward alongside the Menzel brothers and will also be able to support through the ruck.

47 Kai Pudney

Kai has once again shown his speed in pre-season doing to 2km time trial in 5.57 mins. His edurance/speed will be invaluable on the wing and through the midfield.

LOT 8

11 Jarred Allmond

Jarred comes back to us from North Adelaide and will be a valuable asset on the wing. Jarred continues to play at a high level, playing State footy in 2021.

9 Dane McFarlane

Dane was just starting to get going as a player in 2021 when a stress fracture in his leg stopped him in his tracks. Dane has had a full pre season and his elite speed and line breaking runs will be a major weapon for the team.

LOT 9

22 Troy Menzel

Troy has an ability to impact up forward and through the midfield, kicking goals or handing off to others in the forward lines

42 Rory Lehmann

Rory spent the later part of 2021 opposed to some of the league's best key forwards including Liam McBean in the Grand Final. Rory is a 'defend first' player who can also provide some drive out of the back half.

LOT 10

#19 Clay Cameron

Clay started the 2021 season as a forward but finished the season across half back as an intercept defender. With the ability to play at a high level at both ends of the ground, Clay will be a valuable asset for senior coach Jade Sheedy.

29 Matthew Goldsworthy

Matthew has elite endurance, an exceptional kick and an ability to read the play ahead of others.

LOT 11

#35 Joseph Sinor

The two time club champion continues to show why he is such a great player. After winning the 2020 Club Champion as a midfielder, Joe found himself again playing across half back late in 2021 where he was judged the best player over the finals series.

#20 Mitch Duval

Mitch comes to the club in 2022 from West Adelaide. Mitch can play on both tall and small with his ability to take an intercept mark a feature of his game.

LOT 12

#18 Luke Beecken

Fast and elusive off half-back.
Doesn't mind a goal when the opportunity presents.

#24 Sam Rowland

Sam has always been highly rated internally at Oval Avenue and was finally recognised externally, when he played State football in 2021. He won the Bob Quinn Medal for best on ground in the ANZAC day clash. Sam has spent the summer training with the midfield and could provide the team with a different look in 2022.
