WHAT IS THE PLAYER AUCTION

The WWTFC Player Auction provides the opportunity to bid on your favourite Player for a chance to receive a monetary return according to their performance throughout the 2023 SANFL season.

Twelve (12) lots of Senior players will be auctioned in the Main Player Auction and 15 lots in the Tender Auction.

The cash prize will be spread throughout the minor round games and allocated to the purchasers of the best three (3) players in the League on the day and the best in the Reserves in accordance with match committee selections.

The cash prize for each will be calculated once both of the auctions have been completed and announced on the day

Prize money will be paid directly into the winner's bank account at the end of the season in one lump sum payment.

MAIN AUCTION

# 18

Luke Beecken

Luke Beecken had a great 2022 season. During the off season Luke has been working incredibly hard on his craft as well as his 'massive guns'.

This is an incredible opportunity to gain more than your money back.

Lot 1

# 1 JESSE LONERGAN

Jesse is again a member of the leadership group in 2023. The dual premiership player will continue to play to his strengths in the midfield in and around the contest.

# 51 Max Litster

Playing in the backlines Max has a great ability to out-mark or spoil his opponent making him a vital cog in our defensive lines.

Lot 2

#10 Connor Ballenden

Standing at 2m tall and with his strong marking ability, Connor is a key target up forward alongside the Menzel brothers whilst also supporting through the ruck.

#3 Jake Comitogianni

Jake has established himself as a part of the front 6. His two way running and forward line pressure are features of his game.

Lot 3

#7 Riley Knight

Winning the 2023 Perce Johns Medal as the Best & Fairest, the Jamie Tape Medal for sacrificial acts and the RO Shearman medal shows the competition that he is still very much at AFL level with his aggression at the contest and his quality ball use on the outside. He will again be a very valuable member of the team in season 2024.

# 21 Max Beattie

Max joins us from Wodonga Raiders as a midfielder/half forward. Averaging 29 disposals a game, Max will mark his mark in season 2023

LOT 4

# 29 Matthew Goldsworthy

Matthew has elite endurance, an exceptional kick and an ability to read the play ahead of others.

#15 Mitch Hardie

After winning the Most Improved medal in 2022 Mitch will again bring some pace and tenacity through the midfield in 2023 whilst taking the opportunity to score when the opportunity presents.

LOT 5

#James Rowe

James once again joins us after his stint in the AFL.

James will, this year, be damaging in the midfield and will take every opportunity to venture into the forward lines for any scoring opportunity.

#5 Nathan Studham

Nathan took out the 2023 Reserves Best and Fairest and will be pushing for a consistent place in the League side with his damaging left foot penetrating our forward lines.

LOT 6

#30 Zane Williams

Zane is back after a short stint in the AFL with renewed vigor for making an impact in our forward lines, taking every opportunity to score.

#2 Jimmy Toumpas

A great utility player that has the ability to play multiple roles. Jimmy will again be a key cog of the team in 2023!

LOT 7

# 35 Joseph Sinor

Captaining the League side for the first time rewards Joe for his consistent and untiring efforts both on and off the field. Playing across the midfield Joe leads by example.

# 42 Rory Lehmann

Rory spent 2022 opposed to some of the league's best key forwards in the League. Rory is a 'defend first' player who can also provide some drive out of the back half.

# 22 Troy Menzel

Troy suffered a season ending knee injury in 2022. He has been relentless in his recovery and will take to the ground mid season. It will be a joy to once again, see him play alongside his brother.

# 23 Dan Menzel

In 2022 Daniel won the Ken Farmer medal for the highest goalkicker. He is a nightmare match up for the opposition and will again be a key contributor.

# 6 Luke Thompson

Luke will continue to take on the oppositions best key forward and shut them out of the game.

# 31 Daniel Sladojevic

Daniel joins us from South Adelaide as a key defender. Daniel has fitted into the Eagles line-up and will certainly make his mark in the 2023 season

LOT 10

#9 Dane McFarlane

After an injury interrupted 2022 season, Dane has had a strong pre-season and his elite speed and line breaking runs will be a major weapon for the team.

# 39 Jack FIRNS

Jack's attack on the ball and his love for a contest has been a huge asset. He has played key roles on some of the opposition's best players whilst also finding his fair share of the ball.

#11 David Brinker-Ritchie

Standing at 201cm, 19-year-old David spent the 2022 season mixing his time between local club Traralgon and playing at the Box Hill Hawks in the VFL. He will be a great asset to our midfield in 2023.

#24 Sam Rowland

Sam has always been highly rated internally at Oval Avenue and is one of the team's most consistent performers. The Deputy Vice-Captain will be looking to have another strong season in 2023.

#4 Riley Collier-Dawkins

Taken at pick 20 in the 2018 AFL draft, Collier-Dawkins has spent the previous four seasons at Richmond where in that time he played 11 AFL matches, and was a member of the Tigers 2019 VFL Premiership team. The 191cm big bodied midfielder will be a welcome asset for coach Jade Sheedy

#37 Kai Pudney

Kai has once again shown his strong endurance and speed in pre-season taking out the 2km time trial. A weapon he will continue to utilise running up and down the wing all day.
