AUCTION RULES

- Auction goods and/or services will be displayed where possible prior to the bidding for viewing by guests. All goods are as described in the catalogue. Any photos printed may not represent the actual product offered and are used for illustration purposes only.
- None of the items offered for auction in this catalogue can be converted into cash or paid from accounts. All lots are subject to the providers normal trading terms and conditions unless otherwise specified.
- Payment for all auction items must be made on the night. Cash, Visa and Mastercard are acceptable methods of payment. All values as advertised in the catalogue include GST.
- The highest bid will be the purchaser. The auctioneer may, without any reason, refuse to accept the bidding of any person or persons, and if any dispute arises between two or more bidders, the lot in dispute will be put up again and re-sold.
- Any unclaimed items (including vouchers) will be held for a period of seven (7) days, after which they will be deemed abandoned and title shall pass to the Glenelg Football Club, subject to any contract agreement between Glenelg Football Club and the purchaser.
- Failing any contrary agreement the purchaser agrees that the item will become the property of the Glenelg Football Club. No refunds will be made under any circumstances.
- All auction goods must be used within 12 months of receiving the voucher or as per voucher conditions of the provider.
